Select Boarding School for Young Ladies.

MRS. PENDER IS PREPARED TO OPEN A School for young ladies, at her residence near Salem, N. C. The location is healthy, retired and pleasant. Arrangements are being made to secure the services of competent assistants, and every facility will be afforded for the cultivation of the hearts and minds of the young ladies placed under her charge.

As the number of pupils is limited, application must invariably be made in advance.

The first session will begin on the eight of January, 1865, closing on the tenth of June following. For particulars, address MRS. M. F. PENDER, Salem, Forsythe County, N. C.

A. M. LEWIS.

I DO HEREBY APPOINT WM. H. JONES, CASHier of the Bank of Cape Fear, my true and lawful Agent and Attorney, to collect all amounts owing and due to me, and to settle by discount and payment, all claims against me, and to do all other acts and things relative to my property and effects, as fully as I myself could in person, and I do ratify his acts, this the 15th day of November, 1865, at Raleigh, N. C. A. M. LEWIS.

Raleigh, November 16, 1865-86-2ws.

VALUABLE AND DESIRABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

ON THE 20TH DAY OF DECEMBER, THE SUBscribers will sell at auction, for cash, the site on the Cape Fear River at Fayetteville, where the Clarendon Bridge formerly stood, including Toll House, the Land on both sides of the River, Piers, and whatever is left of the property. The sale will be made on the express condition that the purchaser is to build a new, double track, covered bridge, the length of which will be six hundred feet or thereabout.

The site is very desirable to persons having the necessary capital for the work to be done. There is no bridge now on the river. The investment of money in this contemplated work, so near as it is to a large market town, must prove largely remunerative.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, Editor.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For six months, - - - - -	$5,00
For one month - - - - -	1,00
" two months - - - - -	2,00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

Subscribers, etc.

A number of our friends owe us for subscription and advertising. We need the amount and will be obliged to our friends if they will send it to us by Express or by safe hands. The members of the Legislature will afford a good chance.

The Sentinel will be enlarged in a few days.

The Daily Sentinel.

Our advertising patronage and the demand for greater space in our columns for reading matter, oblige us to enlarge, the Sentinel. Our first number enlarged will be issued on Monday next. It will give us nearly seven columns more of matter. This will increase the expense considerably, but we trust the flattering patronage which we have already received will be continued. Our daily circulation we judge to be equal, if not greater than any daily in the State, but we hope to merit a still larger circulation.

Owing to the poor mail facilities in the State, we cannot hope to commence our Weekly and Semi-Weekly earlier than January next. In the meantime we expect to procure an entire suit of new material and presses, with a full supply of book and job type, in order to execute all work in the best style of the art.

We owe much to the enlightened liberality of our friends for the encouragement we have already received. In a few weeks we hope to be able to offer the public a paper, in all respects corresponding with the public wants.

Our friends may begin to send in their subscriptions for the daily, semi-weekly or weekly.

Daily, per year,	10 00
" six months,	5 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

United States and Mexico.

The military prowess and present preparation of our government for a contest with any power, it would seem, ought to make other nations chary how they tread upon our toes. Recent developments, however, very strongly indicate the possibility of a conflict with France within the next year, arising out of the Mexican question.

We much prefer a satisfactory settlement of the question without war. We have had more than enough of it for the good of the nation. Yet the course of France in taking advantage of our internal collision, to violate the settled policy of the American States, by placing Maximilian on a throne in Mexico, cannot be regarded with favor by the American people. Nothing short of his abandonment of Mexico will give quiet to this side of the Atlantic.

The recent movement of the United States troops upon the frontier of Texas, no doubt render Maximilian uneasy, and the confidence which those movements inspire in the Liberals, may lead to his leaving the country without any direct operation on the part of the United States. If so, there can be no good ground of quarrel with France. Should France however, increase her forces with the view of sustaining Maximilian, it will be difficult for the United States to avoid a conflict.

Should such a conflict come on, it may result in a pretty general war. We cannot doubt however, the ultimate triumph of American arms, even if several of the nations of Europe were engaged in sustaining France. While, however, we hope for peace and its continuance, it must be manifest when the American States demand the abandonment of Mexico by Maximilian, the mandate must be obeyed.

Capital Needed.

The Richmond Enquirer says a company is organizing with a capital of five millions of dollars, for the purpose of making loans to Southern planters who need capital to recommence operations with.

This is a most excellent and necessary expedient. Men may talk and talk and multiply ifs and ands, but nothing will do to spring the South into action, but money, yes money. Thousands of farms are lying idle for the want of it. Their owners and others, men of some enterprise and intelligence, are crowding into stores, or seeking petty offices for a living, who could make fortunes if they would till the land or start factories, workshops, or spring a mine. But what can they do without money? We like the above suggestion much, and would like to see a Bank chartered or a company raised in North Carolina with a capital of $5,000,000, to put our farms and workshops in motion. Something must be done and done quickly, if we would see the State spring to action.

HON. GEORGE DAVIS.—A public meeting has been held by the citizens of Wilmington for the purpose of memoralizing President Johnson for the pardon of Mr. Davis, late Atterney General of the Confederate States. This is a proper movement, and we hope it will be successful.

The Congressional Test Oath.

It is much to be regretted, we think, that all the districts of the Southern States had not followed the example of certain districts of Virginia, in sending to Congress only such men as could take the test oath, without difficulty or damage to conscience. It would have greatly assisted President Johnson in his wise, patriotic and constitutional policy of reconstruction, and rendered impotent one of the most powerful weapons with which the South is to be attacked. We doubt not in the least the good faith and patriotic fidelity of those representatives elect, who scruple to take the oath. Indeed, if there be a man in all the South who is madman enough to think of again involving the country in war, we have never heard of him. Men of that description are to be found only in the North, among the disciples of Wendell Phillips.—Richmond Whig.

We have several times remarked, that if men could have been found all over the South, who were entirely fitted for the position of representatives of the people of the several Congressional Districts, who could take the "test oath," we would have acquiesced in such an arrangement, in order to go to the farthest verge of propriety, in securing the good opinion of the North and to give the President all the moral support which such a course would give him. But was this possible? In a few Districts, men entirely unobjectionable to the people may have been found. But the cases were few. In most cases, where men could be found who could take the "oath," they were morally, mentally or politically unfit for the position. Moreover, would not the election have been a farce, to make a requisition upon the people to elect only such as could take the "oath." We find the people have selected those they thought best qualified in all respects to represent them. Is not that right? Ought they have selected any other kind of representatives? We think not.

Gen. Wade Hampton.

We insert to-day the sensible and patriotic letter of Gen. Wade Hampton to the people of South Carolina. It will be read with interest and will impress the reader with the unselfishness and high-toned patriotism of the General — Personal sacrifices for the public good are what all true men will make, and especially at the present juncture, does the country need such men.

Kittrell's Springs Female Collegiate Institute.

We are glad to hear that this School is doing well. It now has about 100 pupils and the prospect is flattering for a pretty full catalogue. We hope to see all our schools filling up rapidly.

The Legislature will meet on Monday next.—The Congress convenes on the first Monday in December.

From Central and South America.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The steamer Henry Chauncey has arrived with Aspinwall advices of Nov. 13th, and $706,000 in specie. The steamer Pacific, from the South coast, arrived at Aspinwall on the 4th inst. But little change had taken place in Chili. The blockade of the ports still continued, but some few, vessels have been permitted to enter and clear at Valparaiso. No further action has been taken by the foreign diplomatic corps. Pareja, with only seven vessels, declares all ports closed. Great preparations are making in Chili for the war. Letters of marque have been issued in large numbers, and blockade running is encouraged.

The celebrated Chilian author, Don Andreas Belle, died at Santiago, Oct. 15th.

The news from Peru is of much interest, and leads to the belief that the next steamer will bring decided news of the success or failure of the revolution. The revolutionists had arrived near Lima, and the Government troops had marched out to give them battle.

In Panama matters are quiet. Some severe fighting had taken place in the State of Cauca, in which the government forces were successful.

A revolution had broken out in Gundinamarca, but no particulars have been received.

On the night of Oct. 30, J. B. Rittenhouse, U. S. fleet paymaster, at Panama, was robbed of $15,000 in gold.

The Shenandoah.

The city of London at New York, brings us the following additional items concerning this vessel:

Captain Waddell of the Shenandoah, states that the first information received of the close of the war was on the 30th of August, from the British war vessel Barraconta, and that he immediately consigned his guns to the hold of his vessel and steered for Liverpool.

The Daily News says that Americans may be induced to say it was only fitting that her end should be as British as her origin. But the News adds that it cannot help asking "how the Shenandoah has been able to pursue her course without the least interruption from the American navy. Can it be possible that the expectation of recovering compensation for losses resulting from her depredations from England made the American Government less eager for her capture? If the world should come to that conclusion it would be one of the strongest practical arguments against the admission of such liability as Mr. Seward is now endeavoring to establish against England."

It is stated that Capt. Waddell sent a letter to Earl Russell, the contents of which are as yet unknown.

NEW BERNE, N. C.—We spent two days of the past week in our sister town, and were greatly surprised to see the large amount of business which the enterprising merchants of that place are doing. Large stocks of goods are continually pouring in, and customers are removing them to the interior almost as rapidly as they arrive.

The Shipping Merchant is by no means idle—the wharves are full of Cotton, Naval Stores, &c., while several lines of Steamers are weekly plying between New Berne and Northern cities.

Nor is this all—the warehouses are filled with goods received for shipment into the interior, and so great is the accumulation that complaints are continually made that the facilities for the transhipment of Goods to Western North Carolina are not sufficient. Of one thing we are certain, the New Berne merchant is doing all in his power to send forward the goods in his hands—if there is fault anywhere we do not think it lies with him.—Goldsboro News.

For the Sentinel.

Tournament in Louisburg N. C.

Propitiously the morning of the 14th instant dawned. Not a cloud obscured the beams of the "God of Day" gliding over the peaceful horizon, while zephrys soft as the first blush of rosy spring, and mild as its balmy breath, gently fanned the brow and seemed to revivify or infuse with new life, the assembled multitude collected to witness scenes which recalled the times of yore, and in imagination bore us to the days of Chivalry and Knight Errantry.

The gallant braves of our classic little town actuated by the true spirit of high-toned refinement, and genuine politeness, which recognizes the encouragement and smiles of fair Lassies as a recompense of reward for dangers encountertered, fatigue endured, and hardships undergone, determined to arouse from the dreamy quiet which for weeks supremely reigned, and have a Grand Tournament and Coronation party in Louisburg. With them to conclude was but to execute. Visitors and citizens united in the opinion, that the well merited praise of the town and county was on this auspicious occasion fully sustained. The result must have been highly satisfactory to those who looked forward with the brightest anticipations.

A vast concourse of people were in attendance while Slaughter's band of music from Petersburg served to enliven the scenes. The procession comprising the music, Knights, Judges and Marshals, formed at Dent's hotel and proceeded thence up front street to the tilting ground which was situated on the North side of town just without the incorporation. The posts and beam from which the ring was suspended, were wreathed with festoons of evergreens, and with the beautiful row of cedars lining the right side, gave to the whole a verdant appearance.

The crowd congregated at an early hour, and soon a strain of music announced that the procession had arrived. Many encomiums were passed on the chief Marshal, Dr. J. B. Clifton of Louisburg. Too much credit cannot be awarded him and his polite assistants for the great order and system which prevailed, and for the dignity with which the honors of the occasion were upheld.

The Knights formed in front of the Judges' stand where a most appropriate, well written and euphonious address was delivered by Col. W. F. Green of Franklin. He caused the ladies present to be in a very happy frame of mind, calling them escaped Angels, and making them for the nonce almost believe they were more than human, though less than divine. His speech was rapturously applauded.

Maj. D. S. Hill then read the regulations for the Tournament. The Knights were elegantly dressed, personating their characters by splendid costumes and on chargers handsomely caparisoned. One steed attracted particular attention, a beautiful chesnut brown with flowing mane, rode by Gen. Magruder during his first campaign on the Peninsula.

The tilting began at 11 o'clock, when all with breathless attention looked forward of course in a measure espousing the cause of some favorite Knight, but willing that any should succeed.

The Knights appeared on the roll as follows:

1.	Knight of	Cedar Rock,	W. H. Arrington,
2.	" "	Raven Plume,	Jas. W. Biddle,
3.	" "	Richmond,	Wm. H. Burge,
4.	" "	Zouaves,	J. T. Clifton,
5.	" "	Chase,	W. T. Collins,
6.	" "	Forest,	R. P. Cook,
7.	" "	Spurs,	Jas. O. Davis,
8.	" "	Virginia,	M. N. Davis,
9.	" "	Louisburg,	W. E. Foster,
10.	" "	Red Cross,	Harvel Harris,
11.	" "	Green Plume,	W. D. Harris,
12.	" "	Cypress,	W. D. Jackson,
13.	" "	St. A'd's Cross,	H. N. Jasper,
14.	" "	Star & Garter,	Henry Jones.
15.	" "	Woods,	T. C. Neal,
16.	" "	Franklin,	Chas. Reid,

Knights of the Green Plume, Zouaves and Raven Plume, are equally successful in the first tilt, each taking the ring three times. An intermission was now granted. In the second Tilt appeared Knights of the Green Plume, Zouaves, Raven Plume, Red Cross, Forest, Louisburg, Richmond and Cedar Rock. The contest is decided Knight of the Green Plume successful to crown the Queen of Love and Beauty, and many an expectant Rowena now awaits her Ivanhoe.

Knight of the Zouaves, Raven Plume and Red Cross, crown first, second and third Maids of Honor.

The choice of the Knights resulted in the following ladies.

Miss Lizzie Mann of Franklin, Queen; Miss Lucy Andrews, of Franklin, 1st. Maid of Honor; Miss Maria Davis, of Franklin, 2nd. Maid of Honor; Miss Theresa Baker, Louisburg, 3rd. Maid of Honor.

After the contest for the ring had been decided, the successful Knight (Green Plume,) was challenged by Knights of Star and Garter, Raven Plume and Zouaves, for the championship at which riding Knight of the Zouaves proved himself champion of the day.

All now retired to prepare for the Party and Coronation which took place 7½ o'clock, P. M., at Dents' Hotel.

As dewey eve and shades of night approached, youth and beauty began to assemble some to engage in the mazes of the dance, where bright eyes were glancing, and blithe forms moved in unison with the exhilarating strains of music, or merry hearts in social conversation, made the light-winged hours speed swiftly away.

All anxiously awaited the appearance of the Queen and her attendants, as they gracefully went their way to the extreme end of the room and ascend the Throne prepared. An eloquent address was now delivered by Mr Wm. J. King, of Louisburg who in the name of the successful Knight crowned the Queen. Many crowded around the speaker congratulating him on his happy effort. It is earnestly desired that both the speech in the day, and also at night, should appear in print, so we can always cherish them as Souviners of the Tournament. The Queen gracefully wore her blushing honors; she was robed in spotless white, and the chaplet of orange buds which encircled her snowey brow, was but an emblem of her own purity of life. The Maids of Honor were appropriately and elegantly attired, and were much admired for the charming modesty by which they were characterized.

The Royal Family formed for the first quadrille and room was now made for those who "tripped it on the light fantastic toe." The evening passed off delightfully. It was not only a "feast of reason and flow of soul" but substantial viands and richest bills of fare made the table all an epicure could have desired. The entertainment extended into the "wee sma hours" when all retired to dream of Tournaments, gallant Knights, waving plumes, and gleaming lances.

All our young men acted well their part and merit the congratulations of the entire community for the interest taken in whatever pertained to the Tournament. Among the number none could be more justly complimented than our energetic young townsman Mr. Geo. S. Baker.

A night or two after the Coronation Party a smaller company assembled at Eglantine Cottage, where another pleasant party ensued. Several strangers were present, among them one or two guests from Washington City who by their agreeable conversation much enlivened the evening.

Thus ended the brilliant occasion which caused us all to feel proud of Louisburg, and Franklin County.

Too quickly hast thou flown, Thou ever noted day,
Sweet memory only lingers to tell us of thy stay,
But though along life's journey our paths may differ wide,
Thy influence will steal oe'r us, like sounds at even tide.

Yes; we will fondly dwell on the 14th, Nov. 1865. It proved what our people could do when they once espoused a cause. It portrayed the gallantry of our young men and caused us to admire and respect them but the more. Forever live that spirit of regard for public opinion, which carries to a successful termination an honorable undertaking. We feel blest that we breath the same air and dwell on the same soil with such brave hearts and gallant Knights. Having such in our midst, is it not right for us heartily to endorse the sentiment,

Let them but lead the way,
Our aid we'll give,
Bid them speed onward,
Yes, long may they live.

EOLINE.

"Bill Arp."

The Chattanooga Gazette is after the redoubtable 'Bill' with a 'sharp stick,' in regard to some allusions made in his late letter on the state of the country. The article begins as follows:

The latest aspirant in the arena of comic)?) literature, has written a letter published in the Nashville Republican of Sunday, in which he indulges in considerable growling at some things which do not suit him in the reconstruction of the country. Perhaps he has a right to do it, but we submit, Bill, that your attempts at "harmonizing" are not likely to succeed, while you are indulging in such terms as calling the Union men of the South "tories" and "slink hearted fellows," and the Union men of the North "Black Republican pups." Because you could not kill off "your enemies" as fast as they were imported is no reason why you should keep up an ill-feeling which true men are trying to smooth down. Do you expect to better the matter by the use of such language as this?

The following is the reply to the same, published in the Rome Courier of the 9th instant:

BILL ARP TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHATTANOOGA GAZETTE.

Gentle Sur: I dont think you tote fair. I havent expressed my laserated feelins in publik but twice sinse the war. I dident live in Chattanoogy, and I dident have no Gazett. For about three months you bullied us in your paper to your entire satisfaction. Until Mr. Johnson sorter took up for us, you never sent a sheet to Rome that dident hurt our feelins and bore into our hearts like a cotton gimlet. You copied from Yankee papers the meanest of their slander, and it seemed to be perfectly congenial with your sentiments.

Well, sur, we bore it like an Injun. We bore it silently and proud. We looked at our desolated land, our lonesome chimneys, our graveyards, where you unburried our dead and sunk your rifle pits: where you broke to fragments the iron railing, and took the tombstones to put in your fortifications. We read your exaltations of Northern bravery and Southern treason, and we skorned you from the bottom of our hearts. Now when of late an humble individual makes bold to bust his biler and express his sentiments in two breef letters, you get up like a sanktified preacher and read him a publik lekture about harmonizin. Gentle sur, it dont bekum you. When I've insulted you about 2000 times we will be even. But I dont intend to insult you at all. If you are honest man and a generous conqueror, I aint after you. When you make an effort to convince Mr. Harper's Weekly and the black republikins that our people from General Lee and Mr. Davis down to the high privates, are just as good, and brave, and honorable as they are, I'll harmonize with you.

But Gentle Sur, havent you spred yourself too fur from home? What hav you been doin about harmonizin your own people? Our little burnt city is fast fillin up with your best citizens. During the war you let em stay, but after the war they are forced to leave. Like exiles, they are seeking refuge in Cherokee Georgy, and there stands yovr paper like a lampless, lightless beakon the shore, and sustains the men and measures that made em leave. You are seein em day after day desertin your State, and you look away off and employ your pen in lekturin a poor stranger about harmonizin.

Gentle Sur, shorten your sights. Begin to work on your home concerns or you'll lose all your best society. They are welcome here, and we'll all stand by em, but then I hav always thought that every great State ought to hav some good men left in it. Don't you?

Gentle sur, tote fair.

Not yours, BILL ARP.

Important from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22, 10 P. M.—Dr. Powell, the State Agent of North Carolina, will leave the city to-morrow for Raleigh. He will take with him important communications from Mr. Seward to Gov. Holden.

Ex-Speaker Colfax's late speech here does not meet the President's approval. The latter remains firm in his own policy and will not remove a solitary feature of it as heretofore announced.

The most of the pardon business has been suspended for the present, by direction of the President. This step has been rendered necessary by the near approach of the session of Congress, and consequent pressing demands of public affairs which cannot be postponed.

Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

A telegraph from Jackson, Miss., states that a bill has passed the Legislature allowing the freedmen to testify when they are parties to the record.

Gov. Humphreys has telegraphed the President relative to the withdrawal of colored troops. The President replied it will be done when order is maintained without them. There is no disposition on the part of the government to dictate, simply to advise a beneficial policy.

ASSASSINATION.—Lafayette Cheek, a native of Orange County, this State, but who has been a resident of Searcy, Arkansas, for several years, was assassinated at his home on Wednesday night, the 18th ultimo.

Pioneer Line of Steamers

FOR

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal.

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS PIONEER and Commodore Adams, will leave Newberne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock A M, connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. On and after the first day of December next they will leave on Tuesday and Friday of each week, making semi-weekly trips. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without charge.

250 TONS OF FREIGHT,

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families traveling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer Williams will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to Whitford, Dill & Co., Newbern, N C.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

Wade Hampton to the People of South Carolina.

He Recognizes the Abolition of Slavery—The duty of the People to Support President Johnson in his present Policy.

Expecting to leave the State in a few days for an uncertain period, I cannot do so without expressing to my fellow citizens my profound sense of the honor given to me in the recent election for Governor. In returning my thanks to them for the late spontaneous and extraordinary manifestation of their kindness, it is due to them that I should state the reasons which induced me to decline to be a candidate. In the first place, the Convention which gave the election of Governor to the people, and with singular unanimity—tho' not in their public capacity—requested the distinguished gentleman who has been elected, to become a candidate for the office. This he consented to do, though doubtless at great personal inconvenience and a heavy sacrifice of his private interests. Under these circumstances, I was unwilling to do any thing that might cause a political contest in the State. I thought that no good could arise at home from such a contest, whilst it might do us infinite mischief abroad. The President of the United States had exhibited not only a strong disposition to protect the South from the radicalism of the North, but to re-instate us in our civil and political rights. I feared that my election—by embarrassing him in his labors and policy—might incidentally do harm to the State. Superadded to these considerations of a public character, deterring me from appearing as a candidate, there were others of a private nature no less strong.

My affairs, neglected for five years, imperatively demand my personal attention. Had I believed that my election as Governor could really benefit the State, or subserve any of her true interests, no sacrifice of a private nature, however great, would have deterred me from accepting that or any other position to which she might have called me; but regarding my nomination only as a compliment from some of my former comrades, I felt at liberty to decline, though deeply sensible of the honor paid to me by the nomination, and the manner in which it was received throughout the State. These reasons, which I hope you will understand and appreciate, impelled me to withdraw my name. Having given the reasons for the course I pursued, and expressed my thanks for your generous confidence in me, I should perhaps here close. But the evidence you have given of your kindness to and confidence in me—evidence as unexpected as it is gratifying—authorizes me, I trust without presumption, to add a few words of counsel.

For years past it has been the boast of our State that there was but one party within her limits. Commendable and vital as that state of affairs was during the war, it is scarcely, if at all, less so now. Every association of the past, every duty of the present, every hope of the future, bid us still to stand "shoulder to shoulder." The work before us demands all the patriotism, all the courage, all the endurance of our whole people. Let no party strife, no minor issues, no petty politics, divert us from the great and pressing work, of the hour. That of reanimating, as far as possible, our prostrate and bleeding State, and rehabilitating her as speedily as may be with the forms, the rights and the sanctity of government and of law.

The bark which was launched a few years ago, amid such joyous acclamations, which was freighted with such precious hopes, and which was wafted on by such earnest prayers, has suffered shipwreck. It behooves us as wise men, to build of its broken timbers, as best we may, a raft, whenever we may hope to reach a haven of rest and safety.

It may be that when the forms of government are restored and freedom of speech allowed us, your late convention will be subjected to harsh criticism and its action impugned. Should such, unhappily be the case, remember that you, the people of South Carolina, accepted this convention as part and parcel of the terms of your surrender. The President had no shadow of authority, I admit—under the constitution of the United States—to order a convention in this or any other State; but, as a conqueror, he had the right to offer, if not to dictate, terms. The terms offered by him you have accepted, and you are bound by every dictate of honor and manliness to abide by them honestly, and to keep in good faith the pledges you have given. I do not myself concur fully in all the measures adopted by the convention; but I shall cheerfully acquiese in the action it took to carry out faithfully the terms agreed on, and I willingly accord to it high praise for the manner in which it discharged its arduous and unwelcome labors. No similar body ever represented more largely than it did the dignity, the learning, the virtue and the patriotism of the State, and I am sure that it was actuated by pure and high motives.

Entertaining these views, I think that it is our duty to sustain the action of the Convention in recognizing the abolition of slavery, to support the President of the United States so long as he manifests a disposition to restore all our rights as a soveign State, and to give to our newly elected Governor a cordial co-operation in his grave and responsible duties. Above all, let us stand by our State—her record is honorable, her escutcheon untarnished. Here is our country—the land of our nativity, the home of our affection. Here all our hopes should centre; here we have worshipped the God of our father's; here amid charred and blackened ruins, are the spots we once fondly called our homes; and here we buried the ashes of our kindred. All these sacred ties bind us to our State, and they are intensified by her suffering and her desolation.

> And, as a child, when scaring sounds molest,
> Clings close and closer to the mother's breast;
> So the loud torrent and the whirlwinds's roar
> But bind us to our native land the more.

I trust that you will pardon me for thus venturing to counsel you. Believe me, that it is in no presumptuous feeling that I do so, but solely in an honest, sincere and humble hope of contributing my mite to the welfare and honor of our State. What I have said has been evoked by your recent manifestations of kindness to me.—This I shall cherish as one of the proudest recollections of my life, for it assures me of your belief that I have tried to do my duty. It only remains for me, in bidding you farewell, to say, that whenever the State needs my services she has only to command and I shall obey. I am, very respectfully and gratefully your fellow-citizen,

WADE HAMPTON.

REPORTED DEFEAT OF THE LIBERALS—THE SIEGE OF MATAMORS RAISED.

NEW ORLANS, Nov. 18,—The Matamoras Ranchero of a late date claims that the Liberals have been badly cut up, and says Gens. Pensa and Galonda were killed, and Cortinas and Hinojosa, and Col. Garsa wounded.

The Ranchero denies that the Imperial gunboat, Poisana, fired upon people on the American side of the river. It also complains of the moral support which the Liberals derive from Brownsville, and alleges that out of a conspiracy thus encouraged, has been murdered Mejia, and the surrender of a city.

The same paper announces the arrival of a number of transports at Vera Cruz, with French troops, a part of which will be immediately sent to Matamoras.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—The Times' Matamoras correspondent says the Liberals raised the siege of Matamoras on the night of the 8th inst., and departed to unknown regions. It is generally thought that this is only a feint to surprise and capture the city. No French troops have yet arrived at Matamoras. The Ranchero says the Liberals left a number of blankets arms, &c. Some few of them were caught napping.

It also says that the principal force of the Liberals has gone in the direction of Camargo, but dispersing in different bands. The Imperial Cavalry pursued them for five miles Escobedo's command took the river route. The French squadron has arrived at the mouth of the Rio Grande.

The President and the South--The Radicals and Their Demands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—There is persistent speculation among our citizens who are nearly all politicians to a greater or less degree, as to the views of the President at this time concerning the Southern States. Doubtless he has been deeply disappointed in the failure of some of them to come up fully and promptly, without reservation, to what he desired them to do, to the end that the confidence they should repose in him would challenge the admiration of the Northern people and elicit the support of their representative for his policy. When his requirements are complied with in letter and spirit by appropriate action, he will doubtless observe all of promise that has heretofore been inferred, as to their being regarded as having entirely loyal relations with the Union. The radicals desire to keep out of Congrees the representative from Virginia, Tennessee, &c, but this cannot be done in consistence with the President's views.

That the radical disunionists will meet with no favor from him when they antagonize his views, I have not a shadow of doubt. They are not his friends and never will be.

NEGRO EQUALITY.—We agree with the illustrious Bill Arp, that the whole crew of "negro freedom-shriekers are mighty heavy on theory, but devilish poor on practice." They are continually prating about negro equality, social and political, and yet none of them, not even Phillips or Sumner, the leading apostles of the extremists, has treated the negro as an equal, either socially or politically. Now here is a case in point, and it is only one out of many which has recently come under our notice.—Augusta Cons.

"A NEGRO JUROR REJECTED.—The Cleveland, (Ohio) Plain Dealer states that one day last week, a justice of the peace of a certain brand, on Superiour street, in that city, summoned a negro as a juryman to sit on some important case with white men. The white jurors, some of whom actually voted for the negro suffrage candidate, Cox, refused out-right to take their seats with him. After a couple of hours spent in gubblings requestings, and refusals, the redoubtable justice discharged the negro, and summoned a white man in his place."

Negro Suffrage.

The radical doctrine of negro suffrage finds no favor with the people, even where the republican party has received the most positive support. Only the other day the doctrine received a severe rebuke in New England, Connecticut pronouncing most decidedly against it. Now Wisconsin has spoken, and that State, giving to the republican ticket a majority of seven thousand votes, gives at the same time its verdict against negro suffrage. Thus we find an evident reign of good common sense in four States—Connecticut, Wisconsin, New Jersey and South Carolina.—N. Y. Herald.

Staunton,	Richmond,
Greensboro',	Petersburg,
Danville,	Salisbury,
Charlotte,	Wilmington,
Weldon,	Goldsboro',
Newbern,	Norfolk,
Bristol, Tenn.,	Knoxville, Tenn.,
Fredericksburg,

AND

all accessible points in the States of

NEW YORK, PENNSYLVANIA, MARYLAND, VIRGINIA AND N. CAROLINA,

AND

Way Stations on the following named Railroads:

BALTIMORE AND OHIO,

ORANGE AND ALEXANDRIA,

VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE,

VIRGINIA CENTRAL,

PETERSBURG & WELDON,

RICHMOND & DANVILLE,

PETERSBURG & LYNCHBURG,

RALEIGH & GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL,

WILMINGTON & WELDON,

ATLANTIC & N. CAROLINA.

☞ As the line of Railroads is opened, they will extend their business to all points in the South, in addition to those named.

The Company has also such favorable contracts with steamer lines from all Northern ports to those of the South, as will enable it to deliver goods at all inland points at rates below the usual charges. The tariff of charges will be based upon a fair business per centage above the cost of transportation, without being onerous or oppressive; nor will it be made less than the cost of transportation, with the view to break down or drive off any rival, to advance to oppressive and unnecessarily high rates. Upon this basis the Company solicits public patronage.

W. E. ANDERSON, Agent.

GREAT BARGAINS IN CLOTHS AND FANCY DRY GOODS.

THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY announces to his friends and patrons, and to the Members of the Legislature, and to strangers visiting the City, that he continues to carry on the

at his old stand, where he will be happy to see them and sell them great bargains in his line. He would also call the attention of those of the Military Department wishing to purchase clothing, uniforms or citizens' dress, to the fact that they will find great bargains. In style and taste they cannot be surpassed by any in this city or any other. He deems it unnecessary to say any thing of his own skill in the Tailoring business, but it will suffice to say that his experience has not been for a few years only, but for the last 25 years. He therefore solicits a liberal patronage. Prompt attention will be given to persons wishing to have cutting done. Orders from a distance will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. Call at store No. 15 Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

MRS. FENTRESS has opened a Boarding House next door, about 150 yards from the Capitol, where she will entertain members of the Legislature or transient Boarders.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSUSANCE COMpany of Hartford, have appointed

WILLIAM H. CROW,

their General Agent for the establishing sub Agents in North Carolina and Virginia, according to his discretion. This Company has no superior in this country, is of long standing, and its Assets are over a million and a half dollars. It has a surplus of $300,000 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates are moderate and reasonable, and all losses promptly paid. Thus it is commended to all who wish to provide for their families and loved ones, a certainty for support when their earthly dependants shall have passed away.

For further information, call on the agent at his office formerly occupied by General Haywood.

FACTS TO BE CONSIDERED.

THERE ARE BUT FEW SUBJECTS PRESENTED to the mind of man upon which there are not a great variety of opinions, and about which there are not protracted discussions. But there are a few facts so well established, and so uncontrovertible that they are universally assented to. One is that all men now living, will soon be called upon to gather up their feet and depart to the land of the dead. "One generation goeth, and another cometh, and we have no abiding city here," is a matter about which there is no dispute. Another is, "Of that day, and of that hour, knoweth no man." Whether death cometh at the twelfth hour or at the cock crowing, is of equal uncertainty to all.

Another is, that when wife and children gather around us, to take their final leave, in that sad circle centers all our earthly interest. The last earthly rational thought of Husband and Father, is Wife and Children (if worthy of sustaining such endearing relations.) Another is, no man living knows what may be the result of his efforts to secure a competence for his family. "Riches take to themselves wings and fly away," has been realized by how many? adverse winds of to-morrow, may take the place of to-day's prosperous gales; under currents which the most penetrating eye cannot see, or the strongest arm control, may in an evil hour sweep away the hard earnings of years. Another is, no man ever has, or ever can assume more sacred obligations, than Husband and Father. Hence it is said, that he that will not provide for his own household is worse than an infidel.

Now, what Husband and Father is there battling with the difficulties of life, knowing as he must, that uncertainties attend every effort, and wait upon every enterprise, that he has not with earnest voice, and anxious heart, called to the future to unlock its barred gates and reveal to him the result of this or that undertaking. But the only voice that comes from that land of silence, is, "Verily, thou knowest not what shall be on the morrow."

Such are some of the few facts about which there is no controversy, and such are some of the uncertainties that ever have, and ever will, gather around our pathway through life, and which have in generations past, and will in generations to come, trouble and oppress the Husband and Father. Now in view of these facts, responsibilities, and uncertainties, it is for you to judge and decide upon the propriety, necessity, and duty, of making a policy on your life, for the benefit of your family. Will it not relieve you of your present anxiety to know that a certain portion of the fruits of you labors are secured to that family? Remember that whatever you pay for a life policy is paid to them. The stranger intermeddleth not with that.

Remember also, that $5000 paid to them in that day when the heart and flesh shall fail you, will be more to them, than $10,000 while you are here to provide for them. Also remember, that the amount for which you are insured will not be diminished in the settling of your estate, and that from generation to generation, Life Insurance has answered the end for which is was ordained, as fully, to say to the least, as any institution of man's creation, and that its primary object was, and still is, to secure the family against the stern realities of want, and to relieve from corroding anxiety those who have assumed family responsibilities.

Do you say "I know it would be wise in me to take out a policy and I intend to do so soon; but just now I want to use all my funds in my business."—Friend, if it is wisdom in you to insure at all, it is folly to defer it, to-morrow is in eternity, therefore "Boast not thyself of to morrow," "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." "Procrastination is the thief of time."

The Aetna Life Insurance Company offers you all the inducements to insure that can be found in any company. Its assets are over a million and a half. It has a surplus of $300,000 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates for insurance are as reasonable as those of any other well established responsible Company. It is paying as large dividends to its policy holders as any other Company. Its officers are competent business men. Its assets, are as permanently and as safely invested as any other company can invest theirs, and from which as good interest is being received. It pays its losses as promptly, is as particular in the character of its risks, and as yet it is a stranger to litigation.
